NUMB. 3217

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1744.

Naples, Auguſt 4.

THE Troops that were lately debark'd on our Coaſt, were thoſe employ'd to cover the Lines in Sicily, when the Plague prevailed, not long ago, in that Kingdom. They continued their March immediately towards the Camp at Veletri. There having lately been ſome Appearances here, which ſeem'd to threaten a popular Inſurrection, the Regency thought it neceſſary to order all the Cannon from on board the Ships in the Port to be landed, and diſpos'd in ſuch a manner through the City, as might reſtrain the People within the Bounds of their Duty. They write from Abruzzo, that a Detachment of 600 Spaniards having advanced as far as Fermo, in order to ſurprize a Corps of 100 Huſſars, the latter retired in Time; having firſt burnt their Magazines, in which were a vaſt Quantity of Corn and Forage; they likewiſe left behind them four ſmall Pieces of Cannon, which belong'd to their Foot, and were to have been employ'd in reducing ſome of the Towns in the Neighbourhood, in caſe they had not arriv'd as they did.

Vienna, Auguſt 26. His Pruſſian Majeſty arriv'd here on the 19th. On the 24th he paſſed the Elbe, and To-morrow the Army aſſembles at Leutmaritz. It is very certain, that the Queen of Hungary's Forces are all in Motion; and that a Body of Irregular Troops are actually arrived in the Neighbourhood of Prague; but it is, at the ſame time, no leſs certain, that moſt of the Bohemian Nobility are retiring out of that Kingdom, with their Families and Effects. Beſides the Army that his Pruſſian Majeſty is marching this Way into Bohemia, he propoſes to employ a large Corps of Troops in the Upper Palatinate, to force a Paſſage that Way into Bavaria, while the Imperial Army attempts the ſame Thing thro' the Circle of Franconia.

Hague, September 1. According to private Letters from Metz, his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Diſtemper was a malignant Fever. The Phyſicians Dumoulin and Helvetius, are, at preſent, there; having been ſent for from Paris, as ſoon as the King was thought to be in Danger. They very much approv'd the Application of Leeches, and adviſed his Majeſty to take the Air, eat nouriſhing Things, and not fatigue himſelf, either with Buſineſs, or Travelling, for a Fortnight or three Weeks. The ſame Letters ſay, that the Dauphin has been very ill; which was occaſioned by his over-heating himſelf in his Journey from Paris. They write from Francktort, that his Imperial Majeſty has written to the French King, to deſire that, in caſe he ſends an Army into Germany this Year, the Command of it be given to M. Belleiſle; but it is very much doubted whether this will be complied with, the Diſgrace of certain Ladies having, in ſome Meaſure, leſſen'd his Excellency's Credit at Court; however, it is thought M. Mallebois will be employed, once more, on the Side of Weſtphalia.

IRELAND.

Dublin, Auguſt 25. Laſt Thurſday Morning died Upton Peacock, Eſq; Phyſician-General to the Army in this Kingdom.

The ſame Day died of an Apoplexy, at Caſtle-Bellingham in the County of Lowth, William Aſton, Eſq; Knight of the Shire for the ſaid County. He was a Gentleman of an exceeding good Character, and his Death is greatly lamented.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint William Conyngham, Eſq; a Cornet in Sir John Legonier's Regiment of Horſe.

LONDON.

Private Letters from Hamburgh ſay, that, according to their laſt Advices from Stockholm, there will ſpeedily aſſemble there a Dyet of the States of Sweden, in order to conſider ſome important Propoſitions that are to be laid before them on the Part of his Majeſty.

The ſame Letters ſay, that great Remittances had been lately made to that City from France; deſtin'd, as is believed, for the Service of One, or more, of the Northern Powers; and which are to be at the Diſpoſal of a Miniſter that is ſhortly expected from Paris, in his Way to Stockholm.

They write from Dreſden, that a Courier lately arrived there from Warſaw, with Orders for the Duke of Saxe Weiſſenfels to make the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for the March of 20,000 of his Majeſty's Troops; which, it is thought, will be ſent into Bohemia.

The laſt Letters from Strasbourg inform us, that the French Army have ſuffer'd exceedingly by forc'd Marches; and that Numbers of theſe Soldiers are ill of the Flux, occaſion'd chiefly by their being but indifferently provided with Victuals.

The laſt Letters from the Hague ſay, that the Anſwer of the States to the Memorial of his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter, was expected laſt Friday; and that it is not doubted their High Mightineſſes will very ſoon declare War againſt France.

His Majeſty's Ship the Port Mahone, Capt. Harriſon, on the Briſto Station, has taken a French Banker, and was left in Chace of two other Ships.

The Conſtant Mary, of 14 Guns, and 38 Men; and the Pacifick, of 16 Guns, and 40 Men, are both taken, and carried into Barbados, by the Argyle Man of War; they were bound from Bourdeaux for Martinico.

A French Snow from Guiney, with 250 Negroes, is taken by a Privateer, and carried into Barbados.

The Curtain, Captain Verdon, from London for Jamaica, was drove on Shore laſt Sunday off Rye, and is ſince entirely loſt.

Yeſterday died, after a tedious Illneſs, Mr. Laſher, a great Plummer without Biſhopſgate.

The latter End of laſt Week died George Oſmond, Eſq; Receiver-General of the Land Tax for Part of the County of Devon. The Place is in the Gift of the Lords of the Treaſury.

Yeſterday died at Vauxhall, after a lingering Illneſs, Mr. Watfield, a great Maſter Builder; ſaid to have died very rich.

The ſame Day died, at his Houſe near Lambeth Marſh, of the Gout in his Stomach, William Hartwell, Eſq; a Gentleman poſſeſs'd of a conſiderable Eſtate in the County of Surrey.

Laſt Tueſday Mr. Wilkinſon, a Butcher in Carnaby Market, was ſtopp'd on Finchley Common by two Highwaymen, well mounted; who robb'd him of 4 l.
